

Driven to Explore Exhibit

March 9-12, 2009
Touch a moon rock!

George Bush Presidential Library and Museum

The NASA Johnson Space Center's Driven to Explore exhibit is a unique mobile multimedia experience showcasing the Shuttle Program, the process of the International Space Station and benefits of space exploration leading into NASA's next major program, Constellation. The walking tour includes breathtaking imagery and state-of-the-art models of the Constellation Program's next-generation launch vehicles and human spacecraft destined for use to explore the moon and beyond.

Monday, March 9th – 1:00-5:00 p.m.

Tuesday, March 10th – 9:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Wednesday, March 11th – 1:00-5:00 p.m.

Thursday, March 12th – 9:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Groups will be scheduled to visit the trailer every 30 minutes.

Extend your stay by visiting the Museum's temporary exhibit,
*Beyond the Moon: NASA's Continuing Mission

For reservations: 979-691-4006 or bush.education@nasa.gov