

THURS., FEB. 2, 2012, 10 - 11:15 a.m. (CT)

George Bush Presidential Library and Museum Education Department and the Bush Library and Museum Storytellers Guild present

READING DISCOVERY DISTANCE LEARNING PROGRAM AND VIDEOCONFERENCE WITH FIRST LADY BARBARA BUSH

First Lady Barbara Bush will read excerpts from The Election Book: The People Pick A President followed by a videoconference. Mrs. Bush will answer questions asked by students. Next activities include: Importance of student leadership involvement shared by Jessica Carter, Bryan I.S.D. Jane Long Middle School Teacher; on-stage students accept the challenge of reading buddies; and The Quartet of Singing Cadets at Texas A&M University will perform. Based on first-served registration, verified Texas participants receive a copy of the book.

- Please submit five written questions by noon, Monday, Jan. 23 for the distance learning videoconference.
- Selected questions will be asked by students to Mrs. Bush during the videoconference, time permitting. Selected schools will be notified by Feb. 1 for participation in the videoconference.
- Please note: It is possible that some selected schools may not get to ask their questions due to time constraints.
- May register up to Feb. 1 if not submitting questions.
- Registration form can also be found at <http://dl.esc6.net>. (Videoconferencing tab > Barbara Bush Story Time)
- To submit questions or for distance learning information, contact Kimberly Taylor at ktaylor@esc6.net
- For more program information, contact Dr. Shirley Hammond at 979.691.4013 or shirley.hammond@nara.gov
