Biologues, Women in History

hosted by

Melissa Stevenson

The Bush Museum Storytellers Guild is proud to host historical impressionist Melissa Stevenson Wednesday, October 20 at the Frymire Auditorium. Ms. Stevenson will be performing “Biologues: Women in History”, a theatrical tribute to the significant role women have played throughout history. Her performance will include a rendition of Harriet Beecher Stowe, Harriet Tubman, Susan B. Anthony, and Amelia Earhart. Using theatre as a tool for social awareness, Stevenson developed “Biologues” as a living history resource. Ms. Stevenson has researched, written, and produced scripts on women in history since 1972. The Education Department provides storytelling programs free of charge.
