Celebrate Presidents' Day With Theodore Roosevelt

The Bush Museum Storytellers Guild is proud to host Historical Impressionist Ted Zalewski as President Theodore Roosevelt on February 15, 2006, at the Frymire Auditorium. Mr. Zalewski interactively highlights President Roosevelt's life as a cowboy, soldier, naturalist, historian, and statesman. At age 42 he became the youngest person ever to serve as President. He also won the Nobel Prize and inspired the Teddy bear.

The Education Department provides storytelling programs and student tours free of charge. Please reserve your guided tour ahead of time. Your visit will be welcomed!
